

Article 17: Duties and Responsibilities of Librarians
Key changes

- Teaching of library related courses has been added to professional librarian activities in 17.01a)
- Librarians who did not have teaching in their job description at time of hire shall not be assigned teaching of library related courses unless they agree to such an assignment
- Maximum number of sections of library related courses that may be assigned have been established for regular members and for LTA members
- Probationary members shall have their duties in 17.01 a) reduced for the duration of their first probationary contract instead of only the first two years
- Probationary members shall have their duties in 17.01 a) reduced in order to enable them to develop a research proposal and/or engage in scholarly activities /research.