

CUFA Executive 2022-24

Call for Nominations

What do you see as the main challenges facing CUFA?

Where do you stand on these issues and why?

If you have some views on these two questions, consider standing for election to the CUFA Executive. Nominations are currently invited for the following positions:

Vice-President

Secretary

Member-at-large

Term of office for all positions is two years from June 1, 2022 to May 31, 2024.

The Executive and Council meet as follows:

Executive: Monday morning or afternoon, approximately twice per month

CUFA Council: Monday mornings, twice each term

CUFA Council/AGM: one afternoon, end of each of the fall and winter terms

During periods of intensive collective bargaining, more meetings may be scheduled as necessary. Executive meetings normally take place on the Loyola campus, while Council meetings normally alternate between Loyola and SGW.

For further information about serving on the CUFA Executive, please feel free to contact:

Ian Rakita, CUFA President, ian.rakita@concordia.ca

Geneviève Robichaud, Professional and Legal Officer, Genevieve.robichaud@concordia.ca

For further information about the election, please feel free to contact the Standing Committee on Elections:

Aaron Brauer aaron.brauer@concordia.ca

Alex Lefter, alex.lefter@concordia.ca

Denis Liakin, denis.liakin@concordia.ca

<http://cufa.net>

Please see below for official nomination form.

Nomination Form – CUFA Executive Positions 2022-24

Position (please indicate one):

- Vice-President
 Secretary
 Member-at-large

Nominee _____

Nominator (indicate nominator's name and include email confirmation from the nominator)

Secunder (indicate seunder's name and include email confirmation from the seunder)

I, as member of CUFA, accept the nomination:

Date _____

Questions to be addressed in position statements:

1. What do you see as the main challenges facing CUFA?
2. Where do you stand on these and why?

Regulations:

1. The Nomination form must be completed by the nominee and supported by two (2) CUFA members (a nominator and seunder) The nominee must attach to the nomination form, an email from the nominator and seunder, confirming the nomination. The nominee, nominator and seunder must be members in good standing, i.e., must have a current, valid CUFA membership form on file at the CUFA Office. If any of these criteria are not met, the nomination is not valid.
2. Statement. Candidates must provide a brief position statement not exceeding 200 words to be posted to the CUFA website throughout the election period and included on the ballot. This position statement should outline nominees' qualifications for serving on the CUFA Executive and must address the questions above on the challenges facing CUFA. Optionally, you may include a photo and/or a link to your personal or university web page.
3. Submission. Duly completed nomination forms and position statements, including candidates' qualifications and answers to the above questions, and email confirmation from the nominator and seunder, or the signed nomination form, must reach the CUFA Office by email at c.bohbot@concordia.ca, before 4:00 P.M. on Monday, April 11, 2022.
4. A nomination is not complete until the nomination form and the statement are received, as well as the email confirmations from the nominator and seunder. Valid nominations and accompanying position statements will be posted on www.cufa.net as received.