

CUFA Executive 2024-26

Call for Nominations.

What do you see as the main challenges facing CUFA?

Where do you stand on these issues and why?

If you have some views on these two questions, consider standing for election to the CUFA Executive. Nominations are currently invited for the following positions:

Vice President

Secretary

1 Member-at-large

Term of office for all positions is two years from June 1, 2024 to May 31, 2026.

The Executive and Council meet as follows:

Executive: Monday mornings, approximately twice per month

CUFA Council: Monday mornings, two each term, and once in the morning on the day of the General membership meeting.

General membership: one afternoon, end of each of the fall and winter terms

During periods of intensive collective bargaining, more meetings may be scheduled as necessary. Executive meetings normally take place on the Loyola campus, while Council meetings normally alternate between Loyola and SGW.

Questions to be addressed in position statements:

1. What do you see as the main challenges facing CUFA?
2. Where do you stand on these and why?

Regulations:

1. The Nomination form must be signed by two (2) CUFA members and by the nominee. All signatories must be members in good standing, i.e., must have a current, valid CUFA membership form on file at the CUFA Office. If any of these criteria are not met, the nomination is not valid.
2. Statement. Candidates must provide a brief position statement not exceeding 200 words to be posted to the CUFA website throughout the election period and included on the ballot. This position statement should outline nominees' qualifications for serving on the CUFA Executive and must address the questions above on the challenges facing CUFA. Optionally, you may include a photo and/or a link to your personal or university web page.
3. Submission. Duly signed nomination forms and position statements, including candidates' qualifications and answers to the above questions, must reach the CUFA Office, before 4:00 P.M. on Wednesday, March 27, 2024. Nominations may be sent by e-mail to Chantal Bohbot (c.bohbot@concordia.ca).

A nomination is not complete until both the form and the statement are received. Valid nominations and accompanying position statements will be posted on www.cufa.net as received.
